

Golden Arrow District 2009 Honor Unit Requirements

The GAD Honor Unit Award was created in 2003 to recognize those GAD Packs, Troops, Teams, Crews, and Ships that conduct a quality Scouting program in a manner that support the District's efforts to earn the National Quality District Award and to meet the goals set by the Council in the areas of Membership, Finance and Program. Qualifying as a GAD Honor Unit is recognized by a limited-edition temporary patch for each of the unit's officially registered members (both youth and adult) as of December 31 of the year for which the award is earned. Patches are usually available at District Dinner.
